BOOKS FOR AFRICA 2009 ANNUAL REPORT

How To Help Support Books For Africa

- $75 provides a new atlas or 200 student dictionaries
- $210 purchases and sends a new encyclopedia set to a school or library
- $2,500 provides enough books for five rural schools
- $9,800 supplies a full sea container of 22,000 books—enough for 20 schools

Dear Friends,

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you, our donors, and all supporters of Books For Africa for another outstanding year. 2009 was a challenging year for many nonprofits due to the worldwide recession. However, thanks to the continued generosity of donors and volunteers, we were able to send more books to more countries and continue to work towards our goal of providing books to all children throughout Africa. In 2009, we shipped 176 container units of books to Africa. This represents approximately 1.8 million text and library books valued at over $21 million shipped to 31 African countries. $1.7 million was raised to ship these books. Thank you, everyone, for your help in sending more books to the children of Africa where they are so needed by people who want to learn and improve their lives and their countries.

Books For Africa is also proud to report that in 2009 the following was achieved:

- BFA retained its position as the largest shipper of donated text and library books to the African continent, shipping over 22 million books to 45 African countries since 1988.
- In April, BFA welcomed to Minnesota Tanzanian Ambassador to the U.S. Ombeni Sefue and Liberian President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf, in partnership with the University of Minnesota.
- In May, BFA opened a new 20,000-square-foot warehouse in Atlanta, Georgia, dramatically increasing our ability to ship more books to Africa with greater cost-effectiveness and providing an opportunity for BFA to interact with partners in the Southeastern part of the United States.
- In October, BFA held special literacy conference events in partnership with the University of Minnesota. Key participants included the U.S. Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs, the Tanzanian Ambassador to the United Nations, the President of Somalia, and representatives from the World Bank, South Africa, and the U.S. House of Representatives.
- In November, BFA-commissioned research documenting the positive impacts of book availability upon student literacy and reading achievement levels was presented at the annual African Studies Association Conference in New Orleans, Louisiana.

It has truly been a great year, with so much achieved for the children of Africa. This is very exciting to us and we are proud to report these milestones to you as Books For Africa continues to strive to end the book famine in Africa. Thanks to your compassion, many children will have the opportunity to improve their lives through education and increased opportunity. Thank you for your support. Nothing could have been achieved without the support of you, our faithful donors.

Sincerely,

 Michael J. Henley
